

EXPERIENCE AND INTEGRITY

Commissionaires is Canada's leading security provider, offering our clients a high level of reliability, experience and innovation. We have protected people and property from coast to coast for more than 80 years.

Commissionaires provides private and public sector clients with complete security solutions that integrate highly trained, experienced personnel with cost-effective delivery. We have unmatched resources to plan, design, implement, and manage a solution for any security requirement. From air and sea ports, border crossings, and government facilities to hospitals, schools, and commercial enterprises, we are the experts.

Whether we are creating a comprehensive system from the ground up or supplying individual solution components, our services and solutions include the delivery of superior personnel for guarding, to integrated technology offerings. Commissionaires, known for expert security guarding and solutions, also offers a full range of related security services.

You can count on Commissionaires' commitment to provide professional security services and solutions when and where your organization needs them anywhere in Canada. We perform with integrity, skill and discipline so that you can always trust us to act in your best interest. We constantly seek to add value to your enterprise. When you choose Commissionaires, you can have total confidence that you've made the right choice.

GUARDING

Commissionaires provides highly qualified professional security guards, trained for a wide range of situations in both government and commercial enterprises. Our reputation for integrity helps attract and retain high caliber people of all ages, many with military or police experience. They are also:

- > security cleared
- > flexible and versatile
- > experienced at defusing and resolving conflict
- > skilled in crisis management
- > stable and dedicated to providing superior service
- > trained in latest technology to manage your security systems
- > part of a multi-lingual team

We provide part-time and full-time service. We design our services to suit your specific situation and we train our commissionaires on your equipment and technology. Whether you need to supplement your own security services or outsource all your security requirements, trust Commissionaires to solve all your security needs.

TECHNOLOGY

Commissionaires partners with leading, trusted technology firms to provide our clients with efficient, cost effective state-of-the-art security. Our technology based security solutions allow you to monitor people and property anywhere:

- > Lone Worker Monitoring
- > Loss Prevention
- > Anti Counterfeiting
- > Alarm Monitoring Services
- > PC/Laptop Loss Prevention
- > GPS Asset Tracking

CONSULTING

Our team of elite security consultants are Certified Protection Professionals™(CPP™), who are qualified to effectively manage complex security issues that threaten the people and assets of corporations, governments, and public and private institutions. CPP certification is an internationally recognized credential administered by American Society of Industrial Security (ASIS) International.

The advanced skill and experience of our team of consultants include having served to protect our country and communities in either the Canadian Forces or police and working in security for a minimum of nine years. They can provide advice and guidance on all security issues including technology audits and site surveys to determine your precise needs. Commissionaires also offers complete planning and design services, which include product selection, project management and budgeting for your security system. To ensure that you get the most cost-effective solution, we focus on combining the right technology and the right people.

Trust Commissionaires for all your security needs.
